

MUMMS UPDATE!!!!

Fifteen years ago a few of us heard God's call to go...be servants in Ottumwa District. WHAT A JOY IT HAS BEEN.

The stories are endless and through it all, GOD has worked faithfully. The doors keep opening and NOW.....

MUMMS is expanding into Southwest District~~~~PRAISE GOD!!!!

As a part of this, Allison Engel will be coming on as part time staff January 2012. She lives in Creston and is a third grade teacher in the Orient-Macksburg School District. Most of you know that she has traveled with me the past three years during the summer. What a GREAT JOB she is doing loving the kids as she teaches them about the awesome LOVE OF GOD!!!!

ATTENTION....UMM Groups, Mission Committees, UMW and congregations and individuals!!!!!!

MUMMS has purchased an enclosed trailer which is being stocked to use for our work projects/mission trips and for disaster response teams.

We invite you to check over the list of needs. This is a chance for you to support the MANY families and congregations across our state which are suffering from lost due to floods, tornadoes and etc.

WOW....YOU CAN SEE THAT OUR MIGHTY GOD continues to grow and stretch this ministry! The board and I are so very thankful for the past 15 years and look forward to many more serving our LORD across the southern tier of Iowa!!!

I recently read this quote....

We ought not to ask, "Can I prove that I ought to go?"

but, "Can I prove that I ought NOT to go?"

THINK ABOUT IT....WE ARE CALLED TO BE SERVANTS

There is something for EVERYONE in this ministry!

MUMMS is still traveling...come, get on board~~it is a RIDE you will never forget!!!!

Blessings to you,

Peg Egbert, director
