The Commission on Religion and Race

This October the Iowa Conference Commission on Religion and Race is hosting a jurisdictional gathering of United Methodist leaders to celebrate diversity and to strengthen one another in confronting racism in our society.

Two primary topics for the event are directly related to the work of the Iowa Commission: immigration and cross-racial, cross-cultural appointments.

Bishop Julius Trimble will be among the leaders addressing participants to inspire a vision of a fully inclusive Church. He will be joined by three staff members of the General Commission on Religion and Race: General Secretary Erin Hawkins, Team Leader of Program Ministries Barbara Isaacs, and Coordinator for Resourcing Annual Conference Committees on Religion and Race Myungim Kim.

Dr. Harold J. Recinos, Professor of Church and Society at the Perkins School of Theology, will present the keynote address, "Unexpected News from a Crucified God: Christ Among Strangers."

Gifts from local churches to appointments have helped to reduce the cost of registration for the conference. Learn more about the schedule of events at www.iaumc.org.
