Hannah Daiker, Merit Award Scholar at Simpson College

Hannah Daiker is receiving a $1,000 scholarship to attend Simpson College, where she is a sophomore majoring in elementary education with endorsements in special education, reading, and early childhood education.

She is a Community Advisor for first-year students at Simpson. "I love working with people and helping people with struggles, both personal and academic, so this job is perfect for me."

Hannah is a member of the Manning United Methodist Church in the Southwest District. She has strong ties to her family and church. "I went on the church mission trip to the Rosebud Reservation in South Dakota last summer, and it was yet another amazing experience."

United Methodist Student Day is one of the six churchwide Special Sundays of The United Methodist Church. Scholarships help to educate a new generation of Christian leaders to help the church reach new people for Jesus Christ. Thank you for your gifts.

If you or a student you know would like to apply for a scholarship, visit www.iaumc.org/pages/detail/1003 for more information.
