Diversity Service Center of Iowa

The Educational Outreach program of the Diversity Service Center of Iowa, located in Muscatine, provides seminars on immigration issues for businesses and community groups.

More than 17% of the population of Muscatine alone is Hispanic, so many companies by necessity employ racial ethnic persons. DSCI offers workshops on immigration documentation and regulations so that employers know what processes and policies they need to have in place for themselves and for their workers.

Training events also help employers better understand racial and ethnic diversity. Clients served by DSCI come from dozens of different nationalities. Some live 50 miles or more in any direction from Muscatine.

Rosa Mendoza, the director of the DSCI, writes, "I want to give you a special thanks for your continued support of our ministry in serving the immigrant population" through a Matthew 25 grant from the Southeast District — funds that originated from apportionment contributions from Iowa United Methodist churches.
