

THANK YOU NOTES

Stories of Connectional Giving

www.iaumc.org/tyn

Volunteers in Mission

Denise Hartford, the Volunteer Coordinator for the North Central District, returned to Nashville where her VIM team had gone in February following floods from torrential rain.

Driving down the block in the "old neighborhood," she was truly amazed. It looked like an entirely different street. Almost all the houses were finished and looked beautiful.

Her team had spent 5 days working on the home of Jonathan and his family. And there he was when she drove up!

He said, "You know, the flood was bad, but it wasn't totally a bad thing."

She looked at him in amazement as he went on, "We're going to help other people."

She thought to herself, "But Jonathan, you have a wife and two jobs between you and two small children. You can't be gone on mission trips."

But he continued, "We've already begun helping our neighbors rebuild. We didn't know how to do that, but we do now, because of all the volunteers, because you were here."

Apportionments provide funding for the North Central Jurisdiction United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM) office to support communication, resources, and training to organize mission teams.

THANK YOU NOTES

Stories of Connectional Giving

www.iaumc.org/tyn

Volunteers in Mission

Denise Hartford, the Volunteer Coordinator for the North Central District, returned to Nashville where her VIM team had gone in February following floods from torrential rain.

Driving down the block in the "old neighborhood," she was truly amazed. It looked like an entirely different street. Almost all the houses were finished and looked beautiful.

Her team had spent 5 days working on the home of Jonathan and his family. And there he was when she drove up!

He said, "You know, the flood was bad, but it wasn't totally a bad thing."

She looked at him in amazement as he went on, "We're going to help other people."

She thought to herself, "But Jonathan, you have a wife and two jobs between you and two small children. You can't be gone on mission trips."

But he continued, "We've already begun helping our neighbors rebuild. We didn't know how to do that, but we do now, because of all the volunteers, because you were here."

Apportionments provide funding for the North Central Jurisdiction United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM) office to support communication, resources, and training to organize mission teams.

