Jeff and Ellen Hoover, Missionaries in Africa

Dr. J. Jeffrey Hoover is a missionary with the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church assigned since 1979 to the Democratic Republic of Congo, formerly Zaire.

Jeff's home town is Rudd in north central Iowa. Several members of his family serve in the Iowa Conference, and these connections have nurtured financial and prayer support from local churches across the state for Jeff and his wife Ellen in their ministry in Africa.

Jeff is a professor of church history at Katanga Methodist University. He also was the founding dean of the School of Information Technology.

Dr. Ellen Titus Hoover is a professor at the United Methodist university in Mulungwishi where she teaches courses in Islam and church history. She also works with the English-speaking School of Lubumbashi, an elementary and middle school for children of missionaries, full-time church workers, and other English-speaking families in a city where French is the common language of instruction.
