

Beje Clark Justice Award
recognition for the work of justice

Iowa United Methodist Board of Church & Society

Nominations are now being received for the 2009 Beje Clark Justice Award.

The honoree may be an individual, a group or a church that has pioneered an initiative for justice locally or globally.

The work of justice is defined as an effort to identify and challenge root causes of injustice.

The honoree will be an Iowa individual, group or congregation whose efforts have had an impact in Iowa — to alter unjust circumstances, change attitudes, educate and encourage others to work for justice.

Honorees need not be United Methodist.
