Iowa School for Ministry

The hallway at the Des Moines Marriott Hotel was filled with the sounds of enthusiastic drumming as pastors gathered late in April for the Iowa School for Ministry.

Sheltered Reality (www.sheltered-reality.org), a drum corps that focuses on advocacy for youth in crisis, was kicking off this year's event for church leaders who were exploring fresh thinking about how we do church.

Participants in the School for Ministry learned about financial stewardship principles from Clif Christopher of the Horizons Stewardship Company (www.horizonsstewardship.com).

They discussed ideas for enhancing worship with Len Wilson and Jason Moore of Midnight Oil Productions (www.midnightoilproductions.com).

The three-day event concluded with an address by Scott Hibben, the Leadership Development Minister for Evangelism and New Ministry for the Iowa Conference of the United Methodist Church.

The Board of Ordained Ministry contributes apportionment funds to the Iowa School for Ministry to support vital continuing education opportunities each year for church leaders throughout the Iowa Conference.
