Some possible questions:

How much damage did your home sustain?
Did you lose time at work because of the disaster?
Did your employer or your business sustain any damage related to the disaster?
Have you experienced any medical or mental health problems related to the disaster?
Will you receive financial assistance through insurance? If so, have they looked at the home-you do not want to prevent them from getting help. Also ask if they have taken pictures- they need them.
Did you have to relocate temporarily or permanently due to the flood?
What are your plans for the damaged property?
How would you describe your current support system?
If you know FEMA is coming in to the area-ask them this question and encourage them to do so.
Did you register with FEMA? Did you complete an SBA loan application?
