It is with great humility that I submit my name for consideration to represent Iowa at the 2016 General Assembly. The awesome responsibility of this undertaking is one I am willing to undertake only after intense prayer and thought, as well as the support of my wife.

I was a first time delegate at the 2012 General Assembly. I feel I would be much better prepared to represent Iowa's church membership than the first time. My committee work at the General Assembly was in the area of appropriations and finance. The highlight of my time was the opportunity to work with incredibly committed people focused on helping the church survive by knowing the simple truth of God's word.

First and foremost I am a disciple of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Savior. I believe His word is truth and not subject to revision. The Bible is the word of God and is as relevant today as it was 2000 years ago.

If elected I will do my best to represent the membership of the Methodist Church. I have no direct ties with the Iowa Annual Conference in that I am not a clergy member or a direct or indirect employee of the conference.

I appreciate any consideration I may be given and know that the IAC delegates will select the most appropriate representation to the General Assembly.
